The AGM took place on 9th November after a fun game of bowls. Our Chairman, Anthony Jackson, thanked John Fitzgerald for doing a grand job over the last two years as Captain and welcomed the new Captain, Reg Birmingham who unfortunately was on a cruise.
John then thanked Chris Parkinson for all she has done for the club during her time as Ladies Captain and welcomed Carole Hollett as the new Ladies Captain. He then thanked Chris Brown for his support as Vice-Captain along with all the members of the committee for their hard work and support during his time asCaptain. Finally, he welcomed Reg as our new Captain and said that he could count on his full support as Vice-Captain.

On 7th December the Christmas Party took place when all competition finalists were presented their prizes by Tony Lear and the new Ladies Captain, Carole Hollett. Lots more went on during the day with a bowls competition plus which can be read in the report. Full report in: -
