

2019 Palace Cup (Handicap Singles)

Winner: Tony Mullen

Finalists: Tony Mullen, John Fitzgerald

The Palace Cup Handicap Cup was reasonably well supported with twenty players taking part. The competition commenced on Thursday 21st and ended with the Final on Sunday 24th March.

The Final was played by two very good bowlers which was won by Tony Mullen against John Fitzgerald. The game started well for John leading Tony on the seventh end, 8-4 Unfortunately for John, Tony then began his A game and proceeded to win comfortably. Tony reached the final by beating Nigel Rushton well, John reached the final in a close game beating last year's finalist Cath Patrick

On completion of the competition our Captain, Chris Brown thanked the players for taking part and supporters for attending. Further thanks to the markers and umpire Colin Wright who without the competition could not take place, Bryan Hughes in maintaining the green and surrounds and finally Tony Lear for doing an excellent job running the competition and taking the photographs. Chris then presented the Palace Cup Trophy to the winner, Tony Mullen
