

2019 Avalon Autumn Drawn Triple

Winners: Graham Patrick, Mandy Harris, Tony Lear and Sponsor Judy Durrant Runners up: Reg Birmingham, Trevor Moore Nigel Rushton

The Avalon Autumn Drawn Triples kindly sponsored by Avalon Funeral Care is a handicap competition played over nine weeks commencing on 14th October taking place mainly on Monday's, and sometimes on Fridays, the Final took place on Monday 9th December. Entries were initially good but because of various reasons including weather conditions the final numbers were slightly down, however entries were still good enough for the competition to take place.

Format was over the eight weeks prior to the final the six players with the best five results would be drawn against each other. This year Graham Patrick, Mandy Harris and Tony Lear were drawn against Reg Birmingham. Nigel Rushton Trevor Moore. On paper this was going to be a good final.

In the Final, Graham's team started well not allowing Reg's team to settle. They started with three shot advantage with the calculated handicap. The game continued with Graham's team applying pressure. Reg's team fought hard and started to score but could not gain the advantage allowing Graham, Tony and Mandy to take the championship by three shots.

On completion of the competition our Captain, Chris Brown thanked Judy Durrant from Avalon Funeral Care for their sponsorship. Tony Lear for running the competition, everyone who had made the effort to play and support the game, especially the Final, Bryan Hughes for management of the green. Julie then presented the trophy to the winners and prizes to the finalists. Carol Hollett then took photographs.
